
Chullin 94 – Good Morning Raboisai

1️⃣ Sending Meat with Gid Hanasheh

Gemara:

👉 Mishnah:

- Allowed to send a whole thigh with gid hanasheh

📌 Reason

👉 It is obvious:

- Gid has not been removed

👉 Therefore:

- No concern someone will eat it

2️⃣ Whole vs Cut Pieces

👉 Whole thigh:

- Recognisable → permitted

👉 Cut pieces:

- Not recognisable → concern

3️⃣ Buying from Non-Jews

👉 Depends on place:

- If announcements made → permitted
- If not → forbidden

📌 Announcement

👉 If treifa exists:

- Publicly announced

👉 Result:

- People know what to avoid

4️⃣ Concern – Reselling Meat

👉 If no announcement:

- Non-Jew may resell to Jew

👉 Jew may:

- Eat forbidden meat unknowingly

5️⃣ Alternative Concern

👉 Even where normally not buying:

- Someone may rely on seeing a Jew sell it

👉 Think:

- Meat is permitted

6️⃣ Gneivas Daas – Core Sugya

👉 Key line:

- “It is forbidden to deceive people”

👉 Applies:

- Even to non-Jews

📌 Definition

👉 Causing someone to believe something untrue

7️⃣ Examples of Gneivas Daas

👉 Giving inferior item:

- While making it seem superior

👉 Offering gifts:

- When you know they will not accept

👉 Opening items:

- That were already sold

8️⃣ Exception

👉 If done publicly:

- To give honor to someone

👉 Then:

- Permitted

9️⃣ Story – Shmuel

👉 Sent item to non-Jew

👉 Assistant gave:

- Inferior item instead

👉 Shmuel objected

📌 Proof

👉 Gneivas daas is forbidden

🔟 Additional Cases

👉 Selling dead animal leather as if slaughtered

👉 Sending wine as if oil

👉 Result:

- Forbidden deception

1️⃣ 1️⃣ Extreme Case

👉 Deception caused embarrassment

👉 Led to:

- Tragic consequences

📌 Lesson

👉 Must be careful with others' perception

1️⃣ 2️⃣ Guests Giving Food

👉 Guest should not:

- Give portion to children

👉 Without permission

📌 Reason

👉 May cause harm or embarrassment

1️⃣3️⃣ Sending Meat to Non-Jew

👉 Allowed even if cut

👉 Depending on:

- Local system (announcements or not)

1️⃣4️⃣ Using Non-Jew as Messenger

👉 Do not send to buy meat

📌 Reason

👉 May:

- Steal money
- Bring non-kosher meat

1️⃣5️⃣ Reconciling Cases

👉 Three scenarios:

- With announcements
- Without announcements
- Depends on day

👉 Different rulings for each

1️⃣6️⃣ Announcement Language

👉 They would say:

- “Meat went to non-Jew”

👉 Not explicitly:

- “Treifa”

📌 Question

👉 Is this deception?

📌 Answer

👉 No –

- Non-Jew should clarify

1️⃣7️⃣ Self-Deception

👉 If person assumes incorrectly:

- Not your responsibility

👉 Only forbidden:

- When you actively mislead

1️⃣8️⃣ Story – Mar Zutra

👉 Thought others came to honor him

👉 They clarified:

- They did not

📌 Lesson

👉 No need to correct assumptions

👉 Only avoid active deception

1️⃣9️⃣ Final Points

- Whole vs cut determines recognition
- Buying from non-Jew depends on system
- Gneivas daas is strictly forbidden
- Applies even to non-Jews
- Passive misunderstanding is permitted
- Active deception is prohibited
- Real-life cases require sensitivity
